Horseshoer's Secret® EXTRA STRENGTH supplement helps give you "peace of mind" that you have done what you can to serve your horse's unique hoof and connective tissue needs.

The level of nutritional support the hoof and connective tissue requires is unique to the horse. Based upon performance demands, environmental risk factors, and genetic predisposition, some horses just need MORE of the right combination of nutrients to allow them to perform and feel their best. Horseshoer's Secret® EXTRA STRENGTH supplement has been specifically designed with the hoof of this special horse in mind.
